HOMEOWNER RESPONSIBILITIES

There are a lot of experts on deck when you buy your first home. Loan officers, REALTORS® and other professionals are going to help you out. But there are still some things on your list. Don't forget that, as a new homeowner, you're responsible for items like the following.

- ✓ Learn mortgage terms and understand the rates you are being offered.
- ✓ Keep paperwork or copies of eDocs from all transactions and agreements.
- ✓ Arrange downpayment or downpayment assistance.
- ✓ Attend scheduled meetings, such as with a loan officer or home showings.
- ✓ Decide what you want and need in a home.
- ✓ Communicate with your REALTOR®.
- ✓ Handle pre-offer tasks.
- ✓ Be involved with home inspection and other assessments.
- ✓ Take part in negotiations during the offer process that include things like home repairs and closing costs
- ✓ Know what you're expected to bring to closing.
- ✓ Make moving arrangements.

MOVING

Here are some answers to frequently asked questions about moving into your newly purchased home.

❓ HOW SOON CAN YOU MOVE INTO A NEW HOME?

As soon as you have left the closing table, the home is yours! You can schedule moving as fast as the day you close.

❓ SHOULD YOU PAY A MOVING COMPANY?

Maybe. Moving can be extremely physical and challenging. If you're not up to it, paying a company to pack and unpack your belongings may be the right move.

❓ ARE THERE ANY HIDDEN COSTS AT THE END?

Some possible costs a first-time homebuyer may not know about include hiring professional cleaners, moving company/rental costs, paying to make extra keys or change locks and any immediate repairs.

❓ DO YOU NEED A MOVE-IN CHECKLIST?

No matter how organized you are, moving day can be hectic and full of details. A move-in checklist may help you (and everyone helping) be sure nothing is missed.
